I got this game in a bundle and didn't really know anything about it before trying it out.

It is a beat em' up where you fight animals for the most part. The game is pretty streight forward, though i had some strange frame rate issues which is a little odd. The actual gameplay was really basic and can get pretty repetative, so lets just say it isn't this title's strong point, even with its passive level up system.

The game is presented with a pixel art style that looks pretty cool in some places, and just meh in others. However it goes perfectly with the soundtrack which is really awesome if you are into chiptunes. I honestly feel like the soundtrack is the games strongest point. The sound design is very retro inspired, and kinda bland, but suits the art style.

The story is told with text and seems pretty funny, but to be honest i couldn't keep up with it as the text disappears too quickly. All in all this game doesn't really advertise itself as being amazing, but its charming in its own way. I wouldn't reccomend it to anyone, unless you are bored and looking for something a little silly and short. I did actually have fun with this.

Note - If you are visually impaired you can still play this if you aren't really in it for the story. That said, the story did seem silly and worth reading. Also some areas might give you issues with contrast.. The eye spectacles, my eyes, my eyes!

yes everyone you will play this game

Mycelium come to me.

Guildford was established in 1829 at the confluence of the Helena River and Swan River, being sited near a permanent fresh water supply.

What rhymes with K..... Tiles

Retro you are trgehe lne. This is the best thing ever, but the names, I've met people named like, n8gger or "♥♥♥♥ Me", "♥♥♥♥♥♥" and so on.. Truley awful i cant even get into my own account and the only way to get customer support is to be logged in what a ♥♥♥♥♥ing joke don't waste your money play faceit. I can't give this a positive review mainly for one reason.

The game is "Free to Play", but it's actually a DEMO of the full game.

The full game you have to buy as DLC.

There's no excuse for this as you can actually make a paid game with a demo on steam.. This game was horrible I know its only two dollars but even then I still felt like i got ripped off the game was buggy things glitched out and its story was just bland and it didn't make sense.

A tower defense game that seems to be very heavily inspired by Plants vs Zombies. Also, this is one of those hybrid TD games where, in addition to the towers you can build, your character takes direct part in the action and has his own powers. The humor is laid on pretty thick and can get a little repetitive after a while, but overall beat my expectations for what seems like an iOS to PC port.. Tower Defence at it's deviant best, and the tower, is your face!

Domo Arigato Mr. Roboto! Loot boxes never felt so valuable.

Add 2 points if you've ever been bitten on the face by a bug, and another 5 if you have arachnophobia.. Combat can be annoying but the story is definitely engaging. Music is pretty good as well.. I really enjoyed this game. The character sprites are beautifully drawn and the environment feels cozy and it's very well put together.

The story is also very engaging and the combat feels refreshing, an overall good experience :). If you have a lot of patience and like semi-chance-based games; I'm sure you'll love this game. Of course I'm not very far into it, but I can tell most of the levels are generally the same. The point is to get you to relax and bring your emotion to homeostasis. It's supposed to make you feel calm and indifferent. Listen to the sounds your box makes as it rolls and hits corners and walls. Take deep breaths and don't get frustrated.. Fix your multiplayer! Without it, the game is useless.. Old school feel, perfect game for what it claims to be! I enjoyed it more than Might and Magic X. Sure in the graphic aera it is 25 years old, but all the RPG feel of the party evolution, the exploration and the ingenuity from the developer to make you feel like in an adventure with the somehow basic game he built were refreshing.

Well worth the 30 hours to finish and the 15 euros it worth.
